FROM

John F. Blake

Deputy Director for Administration

SUBJECT

Focal Point for Requests from Oversight

Bodies

- l. We can anticipate continuing requirements for data and information relating to DDA activities from the various congressional and executive bodies charged with CIA oversight responsibilities. To insure that such requests are handled within the Directorate in a coordinated and responsive manner, it is important that the Office of the DDA be aware of such requests and responses on a current basis. I am designating the Assistant for Information as the DDA STATINTL focal point for all such requests and am asking by this memorandum that the addressees make sure that all such requests and responses are channeled through
- 2. In those instances where unusual timing requirements call for direct communication between that Agency component processing the request and an individual DDA component, it is requested that ______ be simultaneously advised of the request or response and be provided copies of any related correspondence.
